Mr. John Payne, President

Dear Mr. Payne:

Thank you for your letter of August 4 with which you returned the Saturday Evening Post article along with two other copies of the same article. It was certainly thoughtful of you to obtain these extra copies for me, since the one I loaned you was the only one still in my possession.

I enjoyed our talk and your very effective presentation of the nature of your interest in possibly doing a series based on the work of the Agency or its predecessor, the O. S. S. So far I have not found a way to overcome the very serious difficulties I see in such a series, particularly as related to our work in the C. I. A. As I explained to you, I am of course quite cognizant of the public relations angle of this matter and I shall continue to study it.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
